Epwin's board has agreed to a 120p/share all-cash bid from the private German company, Laumann Group. The bid is at a significant premium to yesterday's closing price.

Note: PBT is on an underlying company reported basis. EPS is normalised and diluted, excluding amortisation of acquired intangibles, exceptional items and share-based payments.

Epwin has announced an all-cash offer from private German company, Laumann Group, for the entire share capital of Epwin.

The offer of 120p/share has been recommended by Epwin's directors and represents a 31.9% premium to yesterday's closing price, a 25.2% premium on the weighted average price of the previous six months and 42.0% on the closing price on the day before the initial offer.

According to the announcement, the offer represents a 6.1x multiple of Epwin's 2024 post-IFRS 19 adjusted EBITDA.

The price agreed is above the highest closing price of the shares since May 2017, more than eight years ago.

We understand that 35.2% of Epwin's shareholders have confirmed or indicated support for the acquisition.

Laumann Group has some operations in the UK and the addition of Epwin greatly increases its presence in this key market.
